ABSTRACT

Zitoken platform is a blockchain game platform, on which is possible to play different games such as trading games and strategy games using ZITOKEN ZIT (our utility token). There is another function that allows users to earn interest rates holding their BTC with us in a level of security in (cold wallet and hot wallet).

In the last function mentioned, we use this BTC in two parts. The first part is used to cover daily withdrawals and second part is used to cover our own bitcoin arbitrage operations to pay interest rates according to period.

Community/users can fund their accounts using Zitoken (ZIT) , Bitcoin (BTC) option will be added after function HOLD is live.
